

Name: _____

Class: _____

Wanaragua Dancers

Wanaragua (also called Jankunu) is a masked processional rite traditionally performed in Garifuna communities during the Christmas season. The word "Wanaragua" means "mask" and features male dancers wearing elaborate crowns; a wire mask painted with European features; cowry shells at the knees, among other elements. It is believed that the mask, garment and dance movements are done to mock British colonial masters as a form of satire.

Instructions: Colour the scene with the Wanaragua dancer below.

